

TAWNY LION CUB IS HER FAVORITE PET

Miss Bonifis out for a ride with her pet.

The lap dog is rapidly losing his place as favorite. His place is being filled by monkeys, cats, and even little pigs. Miss Helen G. Bonifis of Denver's "Sacred Thirty-six," has adopted as her favorite a tawny lion cub and takes it with her when driving about Denver.

MANY VILLISTAS ACCOUNTED FOR

One Hundred Dead and Wounded and 150 in Hiding Belonged to Band That Raided Columbus.

MANY ABSURD REPORTS

Expedition Still Driving on With Same Speed as at Start—Men and Horses Hardened.

Pershing's Camp at San Geronimo Ranch, Chihuahua, April 3, by Aeroplane and Motor Courier to Columbus, N. M., April 7.—A good sized portion of the bandits with whom Villa raided Columbus, N. M., March 9, already has been accounted for by the expeditionary force. At least 46 of them and probably 50 or 60 were killed in the Guerrero fight. About two dozen others wounded and left behind by Villa in his flight from the border have been collected and held by the American authorities at points along the line of communications. Reports have come in indicating that some others deserted Villa. Most of these claimed that they were forced to join his band in the first place. This means about 100 accounted for in the march of the expeditionary forces.

In addition about 150 others were scattered over the mountains of this section by the fight at Guerrero. One of the evidences of the effectiveness with which they have been scattered is the numerous reports about the hiding places of Villistas now coming to military authorities.

Many Absurd Reports. Some of them are absurd as one from an apparently high authority has named this headquarters camp positively as Villa's hiding place. There is no place for anyone to hide here, not even a tent and the Mexican population is so small that it can be counted in five minutes.

A few of the reports are spread by Villa sympathizers in an attempt to mislead the army but the military authorities are not relying upon native information. Instead they are distributing their own intelligence service, realizing that this may be a long hunt. More Troops and Supplies on Way. Cavalry, infantry and more supplies are along the way the 350 mile line which the army has penetrated into Mexican territory to date. The expedition is still driving on with the same speed as at the start, across the border, though now in a more routine spirit. The men and horses are hardened now. They have reduced the day's work to familiar system. The problem is to make this system cover as wide a field daily as possible and to keep pushing all the time.

CONSUL LETCHER
REPORTS FIGHT

Persistent Rumor That Villa Has Been Wounded—Troops Live Two Weeks on Scanty Rations.

Washington, April 7.—American Consul Letcher, at Chihuahua, in a dispatch received at the war department today through Major-General Punston, told of some of the results of the clashes between American troops and Villa forces at Aguas Calientes on April 1 and the fight between the bandits and Carranza troops near Cieneguilla three days later. Letcher reported a persistent rumor in Chihuahua that Villa has been wounded. He said the fight at Aguas Calientes resulted in the killing of 30 or 40 bandits by troops of the Tenth Cavalry under Colonel Brown. Brown's troops were reported as living for two weeks on beef and corn with supplies almost exhausted. A mining company, Letcher said, had relieved the shortage by sending a special train with supplies and forage. Carranzistas Capture Fifty Men. At the fight of Cieneguilla the Car-
